

Allahabad University becoming gateway to foreign Universities

In an attempt to regain the status of the ‘Oxford of the East’, Faculty of Law, University of Allahabad is pressing hard and is getting success upto an extent. Not only the members of the faculty, but the students of the department are also making tough efforts in an attempt to achieve the same. This year also, like the previous years, three students of B.A.LL.B.(Hons.): Five Year Integrated Law Course namely Mehul Khare, Vibhav Mishra and Shreya Gupta have successfully secured admissions in the most prestigious universities of the World for pursuing LLM.

Mehul Khare secured admission in Berkeley Law College, University College London, University of Edinburgh, University of Nottingham, Cardiff University and Durham University, whereas, Vibhav Mishra got offers to pursue LLM from University College London, University of Edinburgh, University of Nottingham, University of Warwick and University of Bristol. Shreya Gupta has been able to bag a seat for her in National University of Singapore, Kings College London and University of Manchester. It shall now be the choice of the students to opt for any of the above respective universities to pursue LLM as per their wishes.

It is worth mentioning that the students of law faculty are continuously getting selections from the most prestigious Universities of the World as well as in India. Students of the department have earlier secured admission in University of Cambridge, National University of Singapore, University of Southampton and other top ranked law colleges in India.

On this occasion, Prof. Rakesh Khanna, Dean, Faculty of Law and Prof. B.P. Singh, Head of the Department of Law alongwith other faculty members have congratulated the students for their success and gave best wishes for their life.
