2. University of Allahabad

The history of the University of Allahabad dates back to the days of the ascendancy of the Raj in India. It was established on September 23rd, 1887 by the Act XVIII of the then Central legislature and became the fourth University to be established in the country after Calcutta, Bombay and Madras. Its first entrance examination was held in March 1889. In 1904 the Indian Universities Act was passed which limited its jurisdiction to the United Provinces of Agra and Awadh, Central Provinces including Berar, Ajmer, Mewar and most of the states of Rajputana and Central India agencies. Between 1887 and 1927 at least thirty-eight different institutions and colleges of this region were affiliated to the Allahabad University. With the promulgation of the Allahabad University Act 1921, the Muir Central College lost its independent existence. Between 1922-27 the University had its internal and external wings which were subsequently separated from the University to give the latter a purely unitary and residential character. The University has been accorded Central University Status in 2005 by an Act of Parliament.

From the Raj to the Republic the University of Allahabad has continuously occupied a place of pride in the community of the institutions of higher education in the country and abroad. Because of its contribution in various areas of knowledge, the University won the distinction of being known as 'the Oxford of the East'. It itself speaks volumes for the prestige and honour the University of Allahabad has enjoyed nationally as well as internationally. The University has directly and indirectly made significant contributions to the freedom struggle. Its teachers and students galvanized the people participation in movements against the foreign rule.

3. Department of Law

3.1. A Brief History

With the establishment of the High Court at Allahabad in 1866, need was felt for advocates for practicing in the High Court and the District Courts. The minimum requirement for an advocates was Barrister qualification from England or Bachelor of Laws degree after graduation from Calcutta University. As such teaching of laws was commenced in Muir Central College of Allahabad, affiliated to Calcutta University (estb. 1857), on December 31st, 1872 with 39 students in English Section and 10 in Urdu Section. When in 1887 Allahabad University was established as a teaching-cum-affiliating University, the Law Department also obtained a raised stature accordingly. Hon'ble Justice D. Straight was appointed the first president of Law Department in 1890. By an order of the Governor in Council of United Provinces, the Department of Legal Studies became a separate single Department Faculty of the University alongwith the Faculties of Arts, Science and Commerce in the Muir College campus of the University. Under the Indian University Act of 1904, the posts of Professor, Reader and Lecturer were recognized for the University. The Law Department functioned in Muir College from 1872 onwards till the new building of immense architectural beauty was constructed for the Law Faculty around 1910, adjacent to Senate house on the northern side by the donations provided by the Oudh Bar Association. However, till 1921 the Law Department functioned with advocates as part-time teachers holding all the three cadres. In 1921, when the University was re-organized as a residential University by an Act of the United Province of British India Professor Weir, a distinguished jurist, became first Head of Law Department. In 1936 two full-time posts of Reader were created on which Prof. K.K. Bhattacharya, LL.M (London) and Prof. K.R.R. Sastri, ML (Madras) were appointed. Professor K.K. Bhattacharya became first fulltime Professor in Law Department in 1949.

On account of shortage of accommodation there was difficulty in holding of tutorials in LLB Classes in the expansion of the Law Library. So the Law Department was shifted to the new building which was constructed by UGC grants in the Chatham Lines Campus of which Hon'ble Mr. A.K. Sen, the then Law Minister of India, had laid the foundation stone in 1965. The transfer of Law Department to the new building was completed in early 1980s.

There had been intimate relationship between the High Court and the Department when part-time professor and part-time Reader were allowed to be appointed from High Court Bar. Shri A.P. Dube, Bar-at-Law, an eminent advocate was the last part-time Professor and Head when in 1949 Professor K.K. Bhattacharya became the first full-time Professor and Head of the Law Department. The Law Department continues to have four posts of part-time Lecturers. It is notable that Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru, Pandit Moti Lal Nehru, Sir Sundar Lal, Dr. Kailash Nath Katju had been part-time teachers in the Law Department. Before they became judges, Justice Iqbal Ahmad, Justice Wali Ullah Justice P.N. Sapru M.H. Beg, Justice M.N. Shukla had been part time teachers of Law Department. Two Judges of High Court have consistently been members each of Board of Studies and faculty Board of Law.

The Law Department has the honour of producing legal personalities which have had their role not only in the field of Law but also in the entire life on the nation. A few names like Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru, Dr. Kailash Nath Katju and Justice Wali Ullah Who had obtained LL.D. from the Law Department as regular candidates may be mentioned. Chief Justice Das of the Supreme Court of India had been awarded LL.D. (Honours) in 1960. Prof. K.K. Bhattacharya, Deen & Head of Law Department was nominated as MP by the President of India to the Federal Unicameral Parliament of India under the Constitution of India in 1950.

3.2 Some Distinguished Alumni of The Department:

The Department of Law has produced innumerable Judge including Judges of the Supreme Court and Chief Justice of State High Courts. Governors of States, Advocate-Generals, Ministers, Diplomats and Administrative Officers. It is interesting that Pt. Govind Ballabh Pant, the first Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh, was an alumnus of the Law Department. The students of the Faculty of Law after obtaining LL.B. Degree have contributed to the society through their legal acumen as members of the Bench and the Bar. The Department has a reputation of producing a considerable number of legal luminaries who have adorned or are still adorning high offices in the Government of India in different capacities, which is evident from the list of the legal luminaries given below:

1. Dr. Shankar Dayal Sharma, Former President of India.
2. Dr. G.S. Pathak, Former Vice-President of India.
3. Former Chief Justice of India R.S. Pathak, M.H. Beg, J.S. Verma, Ranga Nath Mishra, K.N. Singh and V.N. Khare JJ.
4. Legal Luminaries like Dr. K.N. Katju, Dr. Rajiv Dhawan, Prof. K.N. Sharma and Several others.
5. Sri T.N. Chaturvedi, Governor of Karnataka.
6. Sri Subhash C. Kashyap, Former Secretary General, Lok Sabha.
7. A number of Chief Justices and Justices of Various High Courts and many others.

3.3 Degrees awarded By The Law Faculty:

The Department/Faculty of Law awards degrees in Law at undergraduate. Post Graduate and at Doctoral and post-doctoral level.

3.5 Faculty Library

The Law Library is one of the oldest libraries containing about 50,000 titles and is rich in old and rare legal literature including books and reports. We have been subscribing to Journals and Reports both Indian and foreign. The Library has a big reading hall with a facility of reading for approximately 100 students at a time.

To keep pace with the emerging publishing trends, the Faculty Library subscribes to Manuputra, different on-line database that will provide access to more than 6000 journals and Law Reviews. The entire Database will be accessible from any terminal of the Faculty.

The Department is also likely to subscribe to Westlaw India and Judicial decisions on CD-ROM format. Supreme Court cases online, AIR Supreme Court and High Court case locator will be accessible from networked Desktops of the Computer Lab.

3.6 Publications By The Faculty Members

The teaching staffs of the Faculty of Law have been actively participating in various National and International seminars and workshops of contemporary relevance. A good number of research articles, comments and notes have been contributed to the reputed Journals regularly published by Law Faculty members.

In addition the faculty members have also authored a sufficient number of standard textbooks for the benefit of students covering almost all branches of law-old as well as emerging.

4. B.A. LL.B. (Hons.) Five Years Integrated Course

In view of the excellent record of the Faculty in Legal Education the University of Allahabad decided to launch B.A. LL.B. (Hons.) Five Integrated Course to be run by the Faculty of Law in close association with other faculties of the University. The Course aims at offering instructions in subjects having enormous potential of employment and which have acquired great social, economic and administrative relevance in the contemporary society. In this course the teaching methods have been so devised so to enable the students to have a clear grasp of the principles of law as also their application in the problems around them in the society, and inculcate in them a vision for the reforms of social processes through the instrumentality of Law. The students are trained in excellent, effective and convincing communication and expression of the matters in speech as well as writing.

The Classroom teaching is conducted by the vastly experienced faculty. Interactive modes of teaching and group discussions are regularly held. Students are given ample exposure and chance to show their talents. There is a healthy interaction between the teachers and students in the classroom. Students participate enthusiastically in the classroom activities and this in turn helps in their holistic development.

4.1 The Mission

Students shall be promoted to the next semester subject to the rules made in the relevant ordinances.

9. SPECIAL FEATURES OF THE COURSE

Seminars and Tutorials

Provision for organizing seminars and Tutorials classes aims at ensuring an intensive and effective interaction between the teachers and taught maintaining an idea ratio between them. It would offer adequate opportunity to get their doubts dispelled and queries answered. It would be a step towards improvements in teaching technique.

Computer Training

Legal education cannot be allowed, any more to lag behind in adoption of the latest facilities in locating law and other materials relevant there to and their due analysis and optimum use. Computer training is to stay as a compulsory component of the entire scheme of studies in Law. Also, computers form an essential ingredient in the blended system of learning which is one of the latest developments in the field of teaching and learning which comprises both the conventional and nonconventional techniques harmonized into one to make it more effective.

Special Lecturer by eminent jurists and distinguished persons of other disciplines

It aims at exposing students to interact with dozens of different disciplines to understand law in a wider and comprehensive context. It would go a long way in broadening the mental horizon and accentuating interdisciplinary approach in examination of legal issues.

Discussion and debate on current social, economic, political and legal problems

It would be an application of studies in legal principle and theory. Provision of debates and discussion would offer an effective opportunity to students to think in terms of concrete problems using their theoretical knowledge. It would strengthen expression of ideas and presentation of one's approach to specific issues.

Career Counseling

Students will be able to avail the services of experts from different field like the industry; the corporations and legal profession to discuss evaluate and decide career-options. The department has already started the process by inviting eminent law firms and multinational companies.
